Walter and Sophia Baum of North Miami Beach told us that they had very little damage during the storm.
They laid all the plants over on the ground. Took a couple of hours to lay them down but a couple of days to get them all back up.

Art Kanzler of Homestead Nursery says he had quite a lot of wind damage. But was thankful that the storm was a dry one. If there had been a lot of rain they really would have been hurt.
